

Education franchise Helen Doron Early English Celebrates 25 Years of Educational Excellence

Helen Doron Early English stands at the forefront of promoting early English language acquisition for children aged 3 months to 14 years. Located in over thirty countries, with three thousand teachers and eighty-five thousand current students, over one million children have benefited from this method since its beginning, 25 years ago.

London, 19.4.10- This year marks the 25th anniversary of Helen Doron Early English, which stands at the forefront of innovative educational systems since 1985. Helen Doron Early English provides exclusive English language learning programs and quality educational materials for babies, children and adolescents worldwide.

This 'silver anniversary' will be marked with a mega-celebration in Prague, Czech Republic with all franchisees and teachers from around the world invited to join together. This fantastic event will take place throughout the second weekend in May, 2010 at the Hilton Prague.

The Helen Doron 25-year celebration is being organized to rejoice the success of this global education franchise that helps enable a better future for children around the globe. "I am thrilled that we were able to bring this valuable English learning method to the children of so many different regions." Announced Helen Doron at her latest press conference "Helen Doron Early English is not just about learning a foreign language, but also about teaching children how to be creative, life-long learners."

Throughout the year, Helen Doron Learning Centers worldwide will be honoring the 25th anniversary with local events. Helen Doron Early English is another excellent educational program of the Helen Doron Educational group
